

Coast Artillery Posts

Capt. Harold De F. Burdick and Capt. Frederick R. Garin of Fort Kamehameha and Capt. Robert V. Clark of Fort Ruger received orders this week to proceed to San Francisco and will be assigned to the coast defenses of the Western department for duty. They will leave on the October transport.

Among those from the posts who have been enthusiastic spectators at the swimming meet this week are Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Magruder, Capt. and Mrs. Brainerd Taylor, Master Brainerd Taylor, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold F. Loomis, Doctor and Mrs. Walter L. Reesman of Fort Ruger, Capt. and Mrs. Frederick L. Martin, Capt. and Mrs. Stewart S. Giffin, Capt. John B. Brooks and Capt. Philip G. Blackmore of Fort Kamehameha, Capt. and Mrs. Louis D. Pepin, Capt. Cris Burlingame, Lieut. Joseph Haw of Fort De Russy.

Gen. Andrew Hero's orders were received too late for him to leave on the transport Monday, so he was a passenger in the Maul on Wednesday, with Mrs. Hero and Master Andrew Hero. Miss Jacqueline and Miss Nora Hero left on the Sherman and will wait in San Francisco for the Maul. Among those at the wharf on Monday were Capt. and Mrs. William W. Hicks, Capt. and Mrs. Otto Schrader, Capt. and Mrs. Harold De F. Burdick, Capt. and Mrs. George Toohey, Capt. John B. Brooks and Capt. Philip G. Blackmore of Fort Kamehameha, Capt. and Mrs. Brainerd Taylor, Capt. and Mrs. Frank Drake, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold F. Loomis and others from Fort Ruger.

Capt. John B. Brooks of Fort Kamehameha was a guest of Maj. James Gallogly at a dinner last Saturday at the Young hotel given in honor of Col. and Mrs. Jack Hayes.

Miss Mary Louise Clark of Fort Ruger was hostess last Saturday afternoon for several of the post children, in celebration of her birthday. After playing games, the afternoon was completed with ice cream, birthday cake and other good things to the hearts of the young.

Miss Clark's little guests on Saturday were Miss Patricia Gave, Virginia Binford, Miss Nana Master Hugh Knerr, Master R. Drake, Master Frank Drake, Master Donald Pitt and Master Arthur Pitt. Mrs. Frank Drake, Mrs. Hugo Pitt and Miss Daphne Dow were Mrs. Robert Clark's guests for the afternoon.

Doctor Clyde S. Brewer, first lieutenant in the reserve corps, is a recent addition to Fort Kamehameha.

Capt. and Mrs. Robert Clark entertained Doctor and Mrs. Walter Reesman at Sunday night supper.

Col. Joseph Wheeler of Fort Kamehameha and Capt. and Mrs. Robert Duennner of Fort De Russy were among the guests at a swimming party given last Saturday by Col. and Mrs. Frank Keefer in honor of Miss Katherine Anderson, a young visitor at Schofield Barracks.

Mrs. Frank Drake and Masters Rodney and Frank Drake of Fort Ruger are spending the day with Mrs. George Ruhlen at Fort Kamehameha today.

Gen. and Mrs. Andrew Hero were Lieut. and Mrs. Harold F. Loomis' guests for supper last Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Duennner of Fort De Russy received word that her mother is ill, and left hastily on the Maul on Wednesday, taking the two children. Mrs. Duennner's mother, Mrs. Caruth, returned to the states not long ago after a visit of several months here.

Capt. John B. Brooks and Capt. and Mrs. Frederick L. Martin of Fort Kamehameha were dinner guests on Wednesday of Mrs. Denise M. Beall of Honolulu, later attending the swimming races.

Capt. and Mrs. Brainerd Taylor entertained Gen. and Mrs. Andrew Hero of Fort Ruger at dinner on Tuesday evening.

Captain and Mrs. Frank Drake had Lieut. and Mrs. Hugh Knerr and Miss Daphne Dow as their guests for breakfast on Monday before the transport sailed.

Capt. and Mrs. Harold De F. Burdick of Fort Kamehameha and Doctor and Mrs. Walter Reesman of Fort Ruger are dinner guests this evening of Mrs. A. S. Hollis of Honolulu.

Gen. and Mrs. Andrew Hero had breakfast on Wednesday before the Maul sailed with Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Magruder.

Fort Shafter Society

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

On Tuesday evening the weekly card club met at the residence of Major and Mrs. Frank C. Bolles and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The prize, which was a Japanese tray inlaid with silver, was won by Captain Ralph C. Holliday, who held the highest score at the close of the evening. Those playing were Mrs. Julia E. Lohman, Capt. John S. Sullivan, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Lieutenant Taylor, Lieutenant and Mrs. Webb, Lieutenant and Mrs. Pearson, Captain and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett, Mrs. Robert H. Peck, Captain and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday and Major and Mrs. Frank C. Bolles.

Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell was the all-day guest of Mrs. William B. Cochran on Sunday before Mrs. Cochran's departure for the states.

The glorious moonlight nights of the past week have been conducive of some very enjoyable swimming parties, chief among which was the one that a number of Fort Shafter people indulged in on Monday evening. This jolly party consisted of Captain and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, Captain and Mrs. Henry C. K. Muhlenberg, Captain and Mrs. Alfred H. Hobbey, Miss Isabel Baker and Captain Lester Baker.

Owing to the fact that nearly all the workers at the Red Cross rooms have gone, or are going away very shortly, it was thought best to discontinue the work at the rooms and the materials on hand have been returned to the department down town, along with the finished work. This unit of the Red Cross has done splendid work, both in quality and quantity, and it is only necessity that causes the discontinuance of the unit. The members are now scattered over the United States and each is "doing her bit" in her new home.

Lieutenant Kramer arrived on the post on Wednesday, having come down from Schofield Barracks to do duty at this station. Lieutenant Kramer is in the Medical Reserve Corps, and will be the assistant of Major Hadra, who has been detailed to take charge of the medical department at Fort Shafter. Captain Ballard, who has been doing duty at this place since the departure of Lieut.-Col. Eugene H. Hartnett, has been ordered out to Fort Ruger.

Lieut. William Mathias was a guest for dinner at the bachelor building on Wednesday evening.

Captain and Mrs. Joan S. Sullivan had as their house-guests from Saturday to Monday Major and Mrs. Chas. A. Lewis and Master Billy Lewis, who were leaving on the transport Sherman that day.

Maj. James A. Gallogly was host at a most beautiful dinner on Saturday evening the inspiration of which was Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Jack Hayes. This popular couple were about to leave the island, Colonel Hayes having been ordered back to the coast, and this dinner was in the nature of a farewell to them. The long oval table was glistening with silver and glass, while the center was graced with a low basket in which fragrant flowers and graceful maidenhair fern were artistically arranged, and over the snowy cloth the petals of pale pink sweet peas were carefully thrown, making a pleasing picture. Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell acted as hostess in the absence of Mrs. Gallogly. Seated around this brilliant oval were Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Maj. and Mrs. C. W. Case Deering, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wells, Captain and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Mrs. William B. Cochran, Mrs. Denise Mahon Beall, Mrs. Ambrose Patterson, Mrs. E. C. Waterhouse, Maj. Laurence Redington, Capt. Brooks, Capt. Harry N. Kerns, Mr. Herman Tucker, Judge

J. J. Banks, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell and Major Gallogly. After dinner the party adjourned to the roof where dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Captain and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday entertained on Sunday with noonday dinner for Lieutenant and Mrs. Johnson.

A party consisting of Miss Isabel Baker, Miss Marguerite White, Miss Mary Belle White, Lieut. William Mathias, Lieut. William Warren and Lieut. Arthur White enjoyed a swim at the Moana beach on Monday afternoon, having dinner at the hotel afterwards, and then went down to see the swimming meet.

The Sherman, which left on Monday of this week, took away still more of the people at Fort Shafter and made the post seem quite deserted. Those sailing on Monday were Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Theodore A. Baldwin, Mr. Teddy Baldwin, Miss Betty Baldwin, Master Dickie Baldwin, Mrs. William B. Cochran, Miss Louise Cochran, Miss Marion Cochran, Mrs. William E. Hunt, Masters Richard and William Hunt, Mrs. Charles Louis McKain, Masters Morris and Charles McKain, Miss Sarah McKain, Maj. and Mrs. Benjamin F. McClellan, Miss Rose McClellan, Masters Ben and Henry McClellan, Major and Mrs. Charles A. Lewis, Master Billy Lewis, and Capt. William H. Jones.

Captain and Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood are back in the post after ten days spent very delightfully at Hilo.

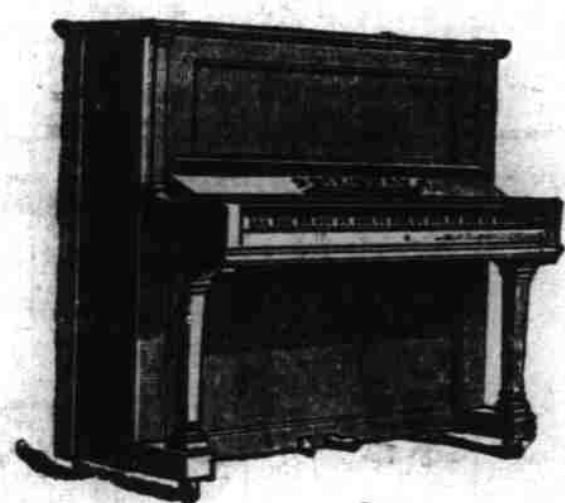

Mrs. White, the Misses White, Miss Isabel Baker, Lieut. William Mathias, Lieut. William Warren and Lieut. Arthur White expect to enjoy a trip around the island on Sunday. The party will have a swim at one of the good beaches on the windward side, and take dinner at the Haleiwa hotel.

Only the back tilts in a new revolving office chair that is said to be more than ordinary restful to users.

Its sparkle is exceeded only by its delicious flavor.
